About Journal

Eurasian Journal of Physics and Functional Materials is an international journal published 4 Number per year starting from October 2017. The aim of the journal is rapid publication of original articles and reviews in the following areas: nuclear physics, high energy physics, radiation ecology, alternative energy (nuclear and hydrogen, photovoltaic, new energy sources, energy efficiency and energy saving, the energy sector impact on the environment), functional materials and related problems of high technologies.

The editorial board sees the task of the journal in rapid familiarization of its readers with current problems and achievements of modern physical science. Therefore, the editorial board will select for publication in the journal high quality articles containing new scientific results of great interest for the community of physicists and interdisciplinary sciences. Kazakhstan and foreign scientists are invited for publication in the journal.

Every article provided with DOI (Digital Object Identifier System)

Doi for Online: doi.org/10.32523/ejpfm

Print ISSN 2522-9869

Elect ISSN 2616-8537

The journal accepts articles in English.

The journal is intended for scientists, engineers, developers, university professors, PhD-students, graduate students.

Information for the Authors

Submission. Manuscripts should be written in LATEX format and should be submitted to Eurasian Journal of Physics and Functional Materials after registration via website (www.ephys.kz). With file in LaTeX format you need to attach a file in pdf-format with an example of how the file should look like after the layout of the LaTeX package and all figures from article in WinRAR or Zip archive.

All the files necessary for submission of the article can be downloaded from our website www.ephys.kz → for authors → download.

All file are archived in WinRAR format:

ephys.tex : sample LaTeX coded file for typesetting manuscripts;

ephys.pdf : sample typeset pages;

ephys.jpg : sample of figure.

For help with the use of LaTeX, please e-mail to azhibekov@ephys.kz or kabyshev@ephys.kz

When paper is accepted for review, the authors can monitor the status of manuscript in personal account on website www.ephys.kz

Copyright. The manuscript, if accepted for publication, is placed in the public domain; copyrights are reserved for authors.

Ethics of scientific publications and editorial policies

The editorial board of the Eurasian Journal of Physics and Functional Materials is guided in its work by the international ethical rules of scientific publications, including the rules of decency, confidentiality, supervision of publications, consideration of possible conflicts of interest, etc. Compliance with the rules of the ethics of scientific publications by all participants in this process contributes to ensuring the authors' rights to intellectual property, improving the quality of publications in the eyes of the world scientific community and excluding the possibility of misuse of copyright materials in the interests of individuals.
